Bundy Fund Growing

KANSAS CITY TO RAISE THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR THE BUNDY DEFENSE FUND.

The splendid manner in which the Negroes of Kansas City are rallying to the defense of Dr. Leroy M. Bundy in contributing funds to secure for him a new hearing is indeed gratifying and demonstrates that the Negro people are beginning to depend upon their own energies to accomplish things. There has been constant call both in person and over the telephone at the headquarters of the Committee in the Masonic Temple, 1803 E. 18th street making inquiries as to what they could do and how much they would be expected to contribute while many subscriptions have been voluntarily sent in and it will be pleasing to many to know that several of these subscriptions were from our white friends, notably: Father Cyprian, St. Monica's Roman Catholic Church, Mr. J. E. Connolly, Thos. R. Marks and others.

Every loyal race loving Negro is urged to place his or her name upon the list of contributors to this fund. All organizations of every kind are urged to contribute to this worthy cause. Every person or organization who contributes more than one dollar, his or her name will be published in the Race papers.

The defense is in immediate need of funds to pay for the record, so that the application for the removal of Dr. Bundy from the penitentiary can be heard. So subscribe quickly. Let's give a demonstration of the Kansas City spirit one time in the interest of the Race. Pledge cards can be found in all Race places, where the Bundy placards are displayed. Step in at once and pledge your support. Subscriptions can also be made at the office of the Kansas City Sun and "The Call." Teams are being organized to canvass the city, to give every one a chance to contribute. Any one desiring to assist in making the canvass, call Rev. James W. Hulse, Bell, East 4880. Dr. Bundy is in the penitentiary simply because he is a black man. LET'S GET HIM OUT.

On last Sunday after a spirited appeal by Lawyer Calloway and Editor Crews of the Sun, $63.88 in cash was contributed by the congregation at Ebenezer A. M. E. Church, 16th and Lydia of which Rev. W. T. Osborne is the able pastor. At the same time more than $25.00 was secured in pledges. The following is a complete list of those who have subscribed at the time of our going to press. OBITUARY.
John William Adams was born in Adair County, Kirksville, Mo., May 9, 1871. He departed this life at his home in Milan, Mo., June 6, 1919 at 12:40 P. M., age 48 years and 29 days. He was the son of Joseph and Margaret Adams, being the eldest of ten children of which one is already deceased.

He came to Milan, Mo., in the year of 1890 and was bus driver for a few years but later became manager of the Adams Transfer Line at which work he continued until the time of his death. He was always considered a splendid example of his race as he always grasped the thing that stood for the betterment of his surroundings.

He confessed religion in 1916, but owing to there being no church in the community of his profession failed to connect himself with any church, yet was a constant reader and believer of the Bible. His favorite chapters being selections from the Psalms of which selection his funeral was preached from and favorite poem "A Psalm of Life."

Funeral services were conducted at the residence at 10 A. M. Monday, under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge, Brookfield, Mo. Funeral was preached by Rev. A. R. Fox of Macon, Mo. He was a loyal and faithful member of Welcome Lodge 118, Brookfield, Mo., K. of P. Lodge, Macon, Mo., and also Allah Temple, Kansas City, Mo. He has gone to the "great beyond" to meet his wife and mother who preceded him many years.

He leaves to mourn his loss a father, daughter, four sisters, four brothers and a host of relatives and friends. Life is real, life is earnest, And the grave is not its goal, Dust thou art to dust returneth, Was not spoken of the soul.

FROM OVERSEAS

Sergt. Frederick H. Jackson of Company B, 806th Pioneer Infantry, writes: Being a constant reader of the Sun, I find that it has increased wonderfully since my departure from Kansas City and for which I wish to congratulate you. A year of absence from home has made a great gap in our lives being cut off almost entirely from civilization. I have always been interested in Betty and Sam and find that they still hold a prominent sector on the firing line. Well, you all have fought a great battle over there for us, as well as we have fought over here for you. Keep it up.

Dr. Phillip B. Johnson, recently with the American Expeditionary Forces in France, returned home last week to the joy of his family and many friends. Dr. Johnson is looking well and says he's glad to be home.

PVT. HENRY M. S. BROWN SAYS: The 806th has been at Brest for some time, ready to sail homeward, and the sooner the better. Regards to all.

Private Leo Gilbert of the 806th Pioneer Infantry writes: We all send our regards to friends. Before I came over here, I was always on the inside looking out, but now that I am over here I am on the outside looking in, and I enjoy no better paper through which to see the happenings of Kansas City and the West than through the Kansas City Sun.

"A CITY OF PROSPERITY."
By Henry B. Brady.

Portland, Oregon, May 23.—Having arrived here a few days ago from the state of Washington, it has been my pleasure to meet the representatives of this city. Numbered among the business and professional men of prominence is J. W. Stanley, Superintendent of Bethel A. M. E. Church, who has been a resident of Portland for a number of years, is considered one of its most substantial citizens. He is credited as being one that has helped to lift the mortgage of Bethel A. M. E. Church in this city.

Dr. James Merriman, who has been a resident of this city for seventeen years, is also a prominent physician here. He enjoys the distinction of having many clients among all races, and is considered one of the best practitioners in this city, also a very prominent figure in the political life here, and a holder of valuable real estate.

E. J. Minor, is an attorney in this city. He enjoys a splendid practice here, also a prominent leader in political matters. His valued worth as a citizen has given an exceptional standing and has the distinction of being the only colored attorney in this city. He is a young man with rare ability with a bright future.

W. M. Moore has been a resident of this city for years. He is one of the first business men to operate an express service here. He is also considered one of the substantial men of this city and is credited as one of Portland's largest real estate holders.

Rutherford Bros., who have established one of the leading tontorial parlors of the city, and in connection these gentlemen have established one of the most complete togery store in this city. The Rutherford Bros. are known for their sterling qualities and they are agents for the Chicago Defender and other race journals, also very prominent in the political life of the city.

The Railroad Men's International Benevolent Industrial Association of Chicago has placed a representative in this city to look after this jurisdiction. These stalwart men, Robert L. Hays, Dr. M. O. Bousfield, and R. C. Wright, has put the spirit of what real organized labor means to the negro railroad men in this country, and even greater importance, they have studied the conditions and have a representative in Washington, D. C. I find it spreading from coast to coast.

The Advocate, published by E. D. Cannady, has the largest circulation of any weekly paper in this state. The Cannadys are products of Texas, they are citizens of exceptional standing, and very prominent in the political life of the state, also holder of valued real estate.

Messrs. Roland W. Hays and Lawrence B. Brown, appeared in this city a few weeks ago and charmed their audience. Both soloists were under the direction of Mrs. E. D. Cannady. They were highly commended by talented musical critics of this city. They both express themselves as having been completely won by Portland. Mr. Hays plans to make a tour of Europe soon.

Warren Hogle, well appointed professional, chiropractor is considered one of the best in the city, also prominent figure here socially. He is one of the big generous fellows of Portland and abids fair in the business here.

Madam G. W. Mullen, who has been a resident of Portland for the past ten years, and have added many activities with a bright page to the history.

B. J. Johnson is among the first class restaurant in this city, merited by giving service and cuisine. He has negotiated to open one of the biggest poultry farms in the state.

The Golden West Sweet Shop is considered one of the best delicatessen in this city, ably conducted by W. A. Green, a big gentleman with a real big heart, he is also one of Portland's substantial men.

The Golden West Tonsorial and beauty parlor is one of the leading parlors in the city and not only does it guarantee up to date service but up to date goods as well. Operated by one of the best gentlemen I have met on the coast, Mr. Walter Bogle.

W. D. Allen is a prominent figure in this city. He is proprietor of the Golden West hotel, one of the largest hotels owned by our people in the northwest. Allen has been an active business man here for the past sixteen years, during which period he has built up a remarkable asset in business and confidence of his fellow citizens. He is ably assisted by L. Allen and Edward Allen, his brothers. These gentlemen have also added many activities here, and very prominent in the political life of this city.

The Uphur hotel, a 1919 modern hotel here, operated by Messrs. W. A. Green and C. C. Craddock are with creditable mention. Also the Uphur Apartment has charmed many visitors that have been to this city.

Sergt. E. P. Frierson of the Ninth Cavalry, stationed at Ft. Huachuca, Ariz., who has just retired after 30 years of service, spent two days this week visiting his sister, Mrs. Dr. D. M. Miller, 2642 Highland Avenue, and other relatives and friends, leaving Friday night for Chicago.
